Candidate Guidelines

Introduction

We will decide who to invite for interview, on the information provided in completed applications. Therefore, you should use the Application Form to demonstrate your suitability for the post. Please note that we will only accept curriculum vitae from disabled applicants whose disability makes it difficult for them to complete an application form. All applicants, however, need to show us how they meet the person specification.

You should complete all parts of the Application Form. If you think some parts do not apply, write N/A (Not Applicable) in the spaces provided.

Please use black ink or type only. This is to make clear and precise the information you are sharing with us. We will not make any assumptions about you, your skills or abilities.

If you don't tell us, we cannot know. Use extra sheets if you wish to provide additional information. Check with your referees that they are happy to support your application before you submit the form to us. It is useful to take a copy of your application form before you return it to us. Applications received after the closing date will not normally be considered, please make sure you send it in on time.

Job Description

You should have received a job description and a person specification within this application pack. The job description lists the job title, salary, purpose and main tasks of the job.

The person specification lists the experience, skills, abilities and knowledge that the successful applicant needs in order to perform the job effectively.

Meeting the Person Specification

This section of the Application form is particularly important. When completing your application you must show how you meet the person specification rather than the job description. The person specification is divided into what the successful applicant must have (the essential criteria) and what it would be helpful for them to have (the desirable criteria). If you do not provide evidence that you meet, at least, the essential criteria, it is unlikely you will be short listed.

Evidence of skills and experience

Experience, skills, abilities and knowledge that you have gained outside paid work are useful and valid, so please tell us about them if you feel they will help you to do the job. For example, if the person specification asks for "good organisational skills” you may not have gained this experience through paid work. However, you may have developed your organisational skills through involvement in a club or social group.

Whichever way you have gained the experience, skills, abilities, or knowledge mentioned in the person specification, you should tell us about it. Remember, we can only decide to invite you for interview based on the information provided in your application. The successful candidate will be asked to produce the following prior to commencing employment;

A) Qualification certificates (Originals)

B) A birth certificate / Passport

Any false declarations or the production of fraudulent documents will automatically result in the offer of appointment being withdrawn.

Support for completing the application

If you are a disabled applicant and require further information or assistance in completing your application form please contact the office.

We will endeavour to provide facilities where appropriate, to assist a disabled person to help them undertake the job, if appointed. You are therefore, encouraged to identify any requirements in your application in order to assist us in meeting our obligations under the Disability Discrimination Act.

If you would like help completing your application, please contact us before the closing date and we will be glad to help you.

Format and Interviews

Only applicants who have demonstrated that they meet the essential criteria in accordance with the person specifications will be short listed for interview. Under the Disability Discrimination Act, we are prepared to make reasonable adjustments to meet the needs of disabled applicants and employees. This is included in our Equal Opportunities Policy.

If short listed, you will be invited to attend an interview. The Interview panel members will ask you questions and make notes. You will have the opportunity to ask questions about the job and the terms and conditions of service.

DBS Checks

For successful applicants only:

For this position it is a requirement of Ofsted to obtain an enhanced disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service Check. The cost of the DBS will be paid by us. The successful candidate will be required to disclose any convictions, cautions or ones pending.

Medical Questionnaire and Declaration of Health

You will be required to complete a medical questionnaire and health declaration should you be successful. This information is confidential.

References

All offers of employment are subject to receipt of two satisfactory written references. Please provide the names, addresses and telephone numbers of two referees, one of whom should be your present or most recent employer. Family members will not be considered as a suitable referee. Both referees must have known you personally for at least 2 years.

Equal Opportunities Monitoring Information

We recruit and select employees by using job-related criteria (the person specification). To ensure that this process is fair, we need to find out how you found out about this vacancy. Also, we would like information about your age, gender, marital status, ethnic origin, and disability and religious belief. We then compare, anonymously, who applies, who we shortlist, and who we call for interview. Please complete the enclosed Equal opportunities monitoring information form and return it with your application. Please note that this information is separated from the application form before short listing and interviewing.
